After the battle the police swooped down on the aggregation and arrested seven of the principals. They were arraigned Tuesday and held in $500 built until to-day for examination. When they were taken before the Magistrate the police said their evidence consisted in the fact that one of their number was permitted to become a member of the chub and when he saw the churche club and when he saw the church the club and when he saw the chur-acter of the proceedings he caused the raid to be made. "That is insufficient evidence," said the Magistrate, "these men are dis-charged."
